

Photo Credits: African Alliance of Rhode Island, Providence, RI; OASIS on Ballou, Dorchester, MA; World Farmers, Lancaster, MA;

The SNEFCC's Land Access Course Schedule

The priority of the space in this course is for farmers/market gardeners who identify as Black, Indigenous, Latinx, Asian, or another ethnicity or race of color.

Applications must be received by 11:59 pm EST on February 10, 2022

If you have any questions, please contact us at info@snefcc.org

Class	Date	Topics to cover
Humans and the land	Tuesday, Feb 15 5:30 pm	The original people of the land Land tenure: How to steward/protect/share the land
Land Assessment	Tuesday, Feb 22 5:30 pm	Land assessment of farmland for your business
Preparing to Find land in Southern New England, Models and Tools to Secure Access to Land: Part 1	Tuesday, March 1 5:30 pm	History of farmland areas in Southern New England (racial history from business & social standpoints) Financial Tools Resources: list of organizations to know and why
Preparing to Find land in Southern New England, Models and Tools to Secure Access to Land: Part 2	Tuesday, March 8 5:30 pm	Tools and resources to evaluate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Market access and opportunities • Transportation • Access to housing • Access to facilities (slaughterhouse, food processing center, ag supply stores, etc) • Prioritize requirements, needs, desires • Traditional ways to access farmland • The new paths to long term fam land access • Create a network of allied TAs - farmers with expertise for peer to peer help
Local and State Rules & Regulations	Tuesday, March 15 5:30 pm	Local & State Rules and Regulations (Zoning Laws, Taxes, Definitions Of Acceptable Farm Practices, etc.)
Advocating for Land Sovereignty	Tuesday, March 22 5:30 pm	Policy and advocacy
Resources Available to Assist with Land Access	Tuesday, March 29 5:30 pm	Service providers panel

